Safety and Civility

Released August 14, 2025

Effective September 13, 2025

Feeling safe and respected is important for everyone's well-being, and treating each other with kindness and civility helps communities thrive. Being respectful doesn't mean you have to agree—it just means treating people with dignity.

Violent and Criminal Behavior

TikTok is about bringing people together, not promoting conflict. We don't allow threats, glorifying violence, or promoting crimes that could harm people, animals, or property.

If there is a specific, credible, and imminent threat to human life or serious physical injury, we report it to relevant law enforcement authorities.

For details on how we approach content that shows violence without encouraging it, see our Shocking and Graphic Content section.

⌄ More information

Hate Speech and Hateful Behavior

TikTok is a place for diverse communities to connect—not for spreading hate. We don't allow hate speech, hateful behavior, or promotion of hateful ideologies. That includes content that attacks people based on protected attributes like race, religion, gender, or sexual orientation.

We respect human dignity and are committed to protecting people from exploitation. That's why we don't allow content that promotes or facilitates human trafficking or smuggling.

When we identify human trafficking and smuggling content with a specific, credible, and imminent threat to human life or serious physical injury, we alert law enforcement. In addition, when we identify youth sex trafficking content, we report it to the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC).
